

CHEYENNE'S MAGICAL SCHOOL BUS TOUR PROGRAM

Cheyenne's Magical Bus Tour program honors the memory of Cheyenne Kouba, a dynamic 5-year old who met the world with a smile. She truly believed that the Magical Forest at Opportunity Village was a special place for all her friends. The bond she held with people with disabilities was very strong. Her Uncle Chris has Down syndrome and many of his friends also have disabilities. Cheyenne never gave a second thought to their differences. They were her friends.

Cheyenne's Magical School Bus Tours is dedicated to introducing children from the Clark County School District's 50 at-risk schools to people with disabilities, to give the children the opportunity to begin to understand the world in which people with disabilities live. Magical Forest visits give children a reason to come to school every day and by being in class every day, the kids find it easier to learn.

CHEYENNE'S MAGICAL SCHOOL BUS TOUR PROGRAM SPONSORSHIP & PROGRAM ENDOWMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Cheyenne's Magical School Bus Tours program gives children from at-risk schools the opportunity to enjoy the magic of the holiday season and meet people with disabilities to learn how they are a valuable part of our community.

Trips to the Magical Forest are not without costs to the schools. Transportation is provided at a fee by the Clark County School District, but for at-risk schools, it is an overwhelming expense that can not be justified. The program has been developed to give these at-risk schools the opportunity to be part of an exciting learning experience and an enjoyable holiday celebration.
